Explanation of Responses:

1. These transactions were made by a securities broker at the request of Mr. Farrell's investment advisor. The investment advisor has full discretion over the accounts in which these trades were made, and Mr. Farrell was not notified of the trades either before or after they were executed. Both the broker and the investment advisor were aware of Mr. Farrell's status as a Section 16 reporting person with respect to Emerson Electric Co., and the trading restrictions resulting from such status, but were unaware that such restrictions were applicable to transactions entered into by the Farrell Family Limited Partnership.
